Getting around the city

On foot

Discovering the city on foot is very easy. The city is pretty small, so it doesn't take long to go from one side to the other. This is also the best way to explore the city!

By bus

Buses cover the city and also the entire island and they are probably the best way to move around the country. St. Julian's is well connected to all the major cities and tourist spots of the islands.

A single ride costs 1.50 or 2€ depending on the period of the year while a weekly pass is 21€.

All information are available in the official website.
