

GETTING IN LYON

By car

Lyon is centrally located in France so it can be reached easily from all over the country. Please check this website for information on the restricted areas.

By train

Lyon is France's third biggest city and is well connected with Paris and other major cities in the country and abroad. Many lines converge into the city's central station called "Lyon Part Dieu", notably from:

- Paris: 2 hours ride;
- Bruxelles: 3 hours and 50 minutes ride.
- Marseille: 4 hours ride;

From Lyon Part Dieu Railway Station, you can reach the city center by foot (in around 20 minutes) or by public transportation like the metro and buses (in around 15 minutes). More information on public transportation can be found here.

You can find train tickets and the timetable at the following website.

By plane

Lyon-Saint Exupéry, is the only airport in the city. From this airport you can reach the center in the following ways:

- by taxi: taxi waiting area in front of the airport or you can call 07 82 81 95 95.
- by bus: there are several bus lines connecting the airport to the city center. More information is available on the official website.
- By Rhôneexpress: the Rhôneexpress tram/train shuttle directly connects the airport to Lyon city centre. More information is available on the official website.

Getting around the city

On foot

All the monuments in Lyon are at a walkable distance from each other and many streets are reserved for pedestrians. By foot is also the best way to enjoy and admire the city with its narrow and characteristic streets!

By bus/metro

There are several bus and metro lines serving the city and with them, you can move around the city pretty easily. More information on public transportation connecting the city can be found here.

By bike

Greater Lyon has a bike rental service with over 5000 bikes available across 428 bicycle stations and a 1035 km network of bicycle paths. This is a great way to get around and discover Lyon! More information on the bike rentals and services can be found here.
